

... they rehearsed all that God had done with them, (Acts 14:27)

Dear Brethren,

It is always exciting to see the Lord answer our prayers and teach us to rely on Him! Thank you to everyone that prayed for our interpreter during her difficult time in the hospital. She was finally released on January 14th and seems to be recovering very well! Another answer to prayer came when we had two visitors show up from receiving gospel tracts! Mrs. Alketa and her daughter Anna have been faithfully coming to our church since January. They are excited to worship with us each week, and it has been a blessing to get to know them. Although I'm not sure about their relationship with the Lord, we are happy to see that they are seeking the truth! Please pray for them to allow God to work in their hearts.

The Lord has given us several good opportunities to witness! A while back, I asked for prayer for a man named Konstantinos whom we met while doing evangelism. Over the last several months, he has reached out to me more frequently, and I've had more opportunities to speak with him. He has many questions about the Bible and religion and seems to be searching for the truth. I also had a great discussion with him for over two hours, but he's holding on firmly to the Greek Orthodox Church—even though he admits that it has many issues. He has filled his mind with so much philosophy and exposure to other religions that he now questions everything without fully trusting in anything but the church. I am hoping to meet with him again and try to witness to him some more!

Recently, I met with an American man named Chris, who is married to a Greek woman, and he wanted to ask about our church. We talked for quite some time, and he told me his testimony. They have three little boys, and he brought them to church not long ago! Please pray for Chris, as well as his wife Christina. His wife is Greek Orthodox and doesn't seem to be interested in spiritual things. Our children have been so excited to have other children coming to church now! We are excited to see what the Lord is doing here and continue to plow, plant, and pray!
